FIVE INJURED IN TWO RT. 15 AUTO CRASHES

Five persons were injured in two accidents investigated by state police Thursday evening.

Four of those injured were in one car which crashed into a bridge abutment near Heidlersburg on the Gettysburg-Fairfield Rd. at 6:35 o'clock Thursday night.

State police, who estimated damage to the auto at $700, said it was being operated north by Mrs. Carol A. Zeigler, 19, York Springs R. 2, when it smashed into the abutment.

Mrs. Dorothy Chard, York Springs, a passing motorist, took the Zeigler family to the office of Dr. William E. Flickinger, York Springs. Mrs. Zeigler, who had multiple contusions of the head and body, and her husband, Barry Zeigler, 21, who had a chip fracture of the spine, were removed to the Warner Hospital. Two of the three children in the car were reported hurt. Bryan Zeigler, 3, and Bradley Zeigler, 2, were treated by Dr. Flickinger for abrasions of the body. An 18-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler was unharmed, according to the police report.

Ole Miss Campus Is Quiet; Will Withdraw 8,000 Troops

OXFORD, Miss. (AP)—A restless peace hung over the University of Mississippi today. At the end of a week that started with bloodshed, federal government officials described conditions as "fairly tense."

James H. Meredith, the 29-year-old Negro in the center of the crisis, was due for another day in classes as the furor subsided and planned to leave the campus later for the weekend holiday.

An indication that calm had returned to the 114-year-old university, scene of last Sunday's riots and two killings resulting from Meredith's enrollment, was the reduction of the military force on hand.

WITHDREW TROOPS

Some 3,500 Mississippi National Guardsmen, pressed into service by President Kennedy just before the riots, will be released tonight and another 4,500 got orders to return home.

The weekend was expected to be quiet in Oxford, after the Depart-

According to the reports all types of equipment ranging from portable pumps and generators to fire trucks and rescue trucks will be on display with crews present to explain to the general public the operation of the equipment and its use in connection with fires.

In addition the plans as outlined by County Fire Marshal John Murren call for various special demonstrations of use of the equipment throughout the afternoon.

Heidlersburg Fire Chief John Adams was welcomed as a new member of the fire chiefs association.

Book covers to be distributed to the students in the Fifth and Sixth Grades of the schools throughout the county were given to the various fire chiefs who will arrange for local distribution in the schools of their areas.

Fire Chief Association President Charles Bretzman reported on the plans to install a new antenna for the firemen's radio network and install a sheriff's radio network. Francis I. Linn, Robert Hartman and Charles J. Kerrigan, the Gettysburg fire chiefs, were named as a committee to arrange for the annual Christmas activities in connection with the December meeting.

Discussed at the meeting were dangers in use of aluminum ladders in connection with structures covered by metal and better means of having persons calling for fire company assistance to designate the company they want.

LUTHERANS OK CONSTITUTION OF NEW SYNOD

Delegates from the 630 congregations in the new Central Pennsylvania Synod of the Lutheran Church in America at the final sessions of their organizing convention at Gettysburg College Thursday afternoon adopted their new constitution without major change but altered considerably the proposed budget for the synod.

Both Gettysburg College and the Gettysburg Seminary are likely to gain financially under the new budget as finally adopted.

As originally proposed both Gettysburg College and Susquehanna University were to receive $75,000. In the form it was adopted the budget provides a total of $200,000 for the two institutions with the matter of dividing that sum between the two left in the hands of the executive board.

$150,000 FOR SEMINARY

The Gettysburg Lutheran Seminary has $150,000 earmarked for it, an increase over support for this year.

In its final form the budget totals $3,297,408 and that includes $2,111,271 for the Lutheran Church in America, $988,448 for established needs of Central Pennsylvania Synod and $197,689 for "emergency and advance."

At the afternoon session the synod completed selection of its executive board. These men were added on the second ballot after the list announced at noon Thursday: Rev. John J. Lenhart, Montoursville; John C. Horn, Alexandria, Pa.; Dr. F. William Brandt, Altoona; Rev. Walden M. Hall, Johnstown; and Thomas F. Lansbury, Somerset.

The five directors who began new terms include Stuart Luca-baugh, James Behney, Mr. Bream, John Pitzer, a former president, and Mr. Frey.

EXPLAINS PLAN ON ADOPTIONS OF CHILDREN

Details of the "limited" adoption service offered by the Adams County Child Welfare Services were outlined Thursday evening at a meeting of the Advisory Committee of the Child Welfare Services at the Court House.

Miss Dorothy Curtis, county director of Child Welfare Services, outlined to the advisory group the procedure by which persons wishing to adopt children tell the local Child Welfare Services office.

An interview is then conducted with the prospective parents to determine their wishes and an investigation is made to determine whether the adoptive parents will prove good parents for a child. Various steps then follow including the selection of the child and eventually the hearing of the court at which final approval is given for the adoption.

Miss Curtis told the advisory board that normal procedure calls for Adams County children to be given in adoption to parents in other counties while children from other counties are given for adoption to parents here. She also noted that the normal procedure sometimes is abandoned due to special circumstances. "Not too many" adoptions are handled by the local office, she told the board, and added "it is hoped that more adoptions can be worked out in the future."

Her report showed 87 children from 44 families are currently under care of the Child Welfare Service.

The board chairman, Dr. Lloyd C. Keefe, presided at the meeting.

An as yet unexplained arcing of power lines of the Metropolitan Edison Co. about two miles east of here this morning caused extensive damage to the lines and is believed to have led to a fire which destroyed the barn at the farm of Ralph Nicholson, Gettysburg R. D., with a loss estimated at $20,000 by Gettysburg Fire Chief Francis I. Linn.

The falling electric lines also cut off telephone service to about 500 families along the Lincoln Highway east of here when one of the electric lines fell across the telephone wires and burned off a large cable, United Telephone Co. Manager John Caldwell asked those out of service to report as soon as possible.

The arcing power lines also apparently threatened the Nicholson home. The fuse box for the power lines at the Nicholson home was destroyed and basement joists on which the box hung were burned, "but the fire went out by itself," Chief Linn reported.

4 COMPANIES CALLED

Gettysburg, Bonneauville, Barlow and Biglerville firemen were summoned after two men came to the engine house here at 3:58 o'clock this morning to report "an electric line burning" at the "run around" on the Lincoln Highway where it is crossed by the new Route 15.

Gettysburg firemen arriving at the scene found "the most unusual sight we have ever seen," Assistant Fire Chief Robert Hartman reported.

According to firemen electric lines were down and poles were burning "about one pole north of the 'run around.'" At the same time lines were arcing from time to time at varying distances from the firemen north and south of the Lincoln Highway. Several firemen reported that "one of the balls of fire looked big as a Mack truck."

DISCOVER BARN FIRE

Firemen set up fire police crews to halt autos along the Lincoln Highway in case the wires across the "run around" came down. Firemen said the wires across the road were still intact, while others were down "all along the area just north of the road."

Shortly after their arrival firemen saw what they first believed was "more arcing" about one-half mile west of their location and south of the highway.

When that glow continued instead of fading as the "balls of fire" from the arcing died, chief Linn sent Assistant Chief Hartman and a truck to investigate. (Continued On Page 2)

Schirra Says He Made One Goof On Orbital Flight

DRIVER WINS HIS APPEAL ON TECHNICALITY

Glenn Richard Heller, Biglerville R. 1, was found innocent this morning following a hearing before the court on a charge of speeding in Bonneauville. Bonneauville Police Officer Bernard Lemmon had charged that Heller was speeding in a town 35-mile zone.

A question of what the law means when it says the arresting officer must have his speedometer checked "within 30 days" was argued. By one method of calculation listed at the hearing the speedometer of Lemmon's vehicle had been checked within 30 days, by another calculation which would provide only 29 days time "within 30 days" the speedometer had not been checked within that time. The court placed the costs on the county.

Max Sherman, Gettysburg, was directed to pay $15 per week for the support of a child when he appeared before the court this morning.

OTHER SUPPORT CASES

Robert L. Snyder was directed to pay $12.50 per week for the support of a child after a hearing on a petition for reduction of a support order.

Robert H. Fissel, following a hearing on a petition for reduction of a support order, was directed to pay $9 per week for support of a child.

A support order against Fred Devine Smith, New Oxford, was terminated on payment of costs. Similar disposition was made on a petition to terminate a support order against William A. Eckert, Gettysburg R. 5.

James Hall, Hampton, was directed to pay $10 per week for the support of his wife. The support charge against Carl E. Rexroth Sr., Gettysburg R. 3, was continued for six months, to terminate at that time if not renewed in the meantime.

A support order against Raymond Rosenberg, Seven Stars, was suspended as of September 1 and was given 30 days to pay an arrearage.

They found the Nicholson barn on fire and summoned other equipment by radio. One truck remained at the Lincoln Highway pending arrival of the Metropolitan Edison crews to cut off the power from the sparking lines in that area.

Firemen said that as they drove toward the Nicholson farm other arcing occurred ahead of them.

LACK WATER THERE

Because there was no water near the Nicholson farm, the Bonneauville, Barlow and Biglerville firemen were summoned to assist. Trucks shuttled between the hydrant near Fifth St. here and the scene of the fire to get water.

While the firemen were going to the Nicholson farm from the Lincoln Highway, Mr. Nicholson, finding his telephone useless, had driven to the engine house here to report the blaze.

Nicholson told Wentz, he was awakened by a loud noise and saw his barn on fire. He rushed there and released five head of cattle into a meadow, but two calves are believed lost in the barn fire.

CHICKENS, CROPS BURN

Destroyed with the Nicholson barn were 10 tons of hay, 10 tons of straw, a 32-foot elevator, a drill and other farming equipment. An unknown number of chickens perished when a chicken house attached to the barn was also destroyed. Firemen prevented the fire from spreading to a former hog pen and a corn crib containing, among other things, 800 bushels of oats, which was about six feet from the blazing barn.

Chief Linn said the appearance of the entry box for the power lines at the barn indicate that the wires entering the barn became over loaded from the arcing and the fire began there.

SEEKING CAUSE

Metropolitan Edison Manager William Lenz, said this morning his employees and inspectors are seeking to "find what happened there this morning." In the Hunt-erstown area, he said "lightning arrestors indicate a tremendous lightning bolt struck there, but no one in the area heard thunder or noticed lightning." And he said he had no explanation as to what happened north or south of the Lincoln Highway in the "run around" area. All new lines had been put in there and, he added, if lightning had struck at Hunt-erstown it should not have affected the "run around" wiring.

Paul L. Spangler, cashier of the First National Bank here, was among those awakened by the incident. Spangler's phone rang, awakening him. He believes it might have rung as a result of wires dropping across the telephone line. Later the bell rang constantly and smoke started to fill the house from the telephone wires. He tore the wires loose from his house and the smoking and ringing stopped. The barn fire was south of Spangler's home.

CLAIM DRIVERS LOSE LICENSES "ILLEGALLY"

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Thousands of unsuspecting drivers have been illegally deprived of their operating privileges in Pennsylvania by the State Bureau of Traffic Safety's automatic suspension system, the Lancaster New Era said today.

In a story by Marvin Miller, the New Era said "the illegal procedures for taking licenses is still being practiced by the state and its victims are drivers who commit the less flagrant violations."

Local attorneys who declined to be quoted said they are confident they can beat a suspension handed out under the illegal procedure and it is being done in the local courts, the story said, adding:

"The state must give the hearing before it can suspend the license of minor violators such as speeders, persons arrested for driving too fast for conditions, or reckless driving, and others."

"In cases of more serious violations, the state may automatically suspend, as provided in the motor code. However, the state has been taking the licenses of minor violators who waive hearings when the motor code says they must be given hearings. The courts, including state superior court, have ruled that the practice is illegal because it does not conform to the due process of law."

The key words, according to the New Era, in the state motor code were: "In minor violations, the state secretary of revenue may suspend after a hearing."

The congregation was organized in 1748 by the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel and the present church was built in 1836 and restored this year.

80 ENROLL IN NIGHT CLASSES

Pre-session enrollments for the adult evening classes to open next Monday evening at the Gettysburg High School reached 80 Thursday evening when many prospective students reported to the high school building to complete their registration.

Adult Education Director Jack

R. Corbin said other students are encouraged to report next Monday evening for late registrations that will start at 7 o'clock. Persons who have indicated by telephone they expect to enroll in any of the courses were urged today to report in person Monday evening when decisions will have to be made by the school director about which courses will be justified by minimum enrollments.

Corbin said today that shorthand and typing classes and an art class are assured so far but enrollments in the other courses have not reached the minimum required for establishment of the courses.

Persons who have enrolled in courses that will not be given will have their enrollment fees returned or will be given the opportunity to transfer to a course that will be offered. Many of those who have registered so far have indicated a second choice.

Last year in the first semester about 120 students enrolled and Corbin said he expects that total may be reached again this year.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO

Requests Cemetery Kept Open
For Vets: The Gettysburg Chamber of Commerce has appealed to Secretary of the Interior Julius A. Krug to permit the burials of all veterans in the Gettysburg National Cemetery, following an announcement earlier this week that the cemetery will be closed after the burial of 600 veterans. The letter of protest said in part, "It is unthinkable that the government should say to the wives and mothers of veterans killed overseas in action that we have no place in our National cemetery for their loved ones. It would be immoral to adopt a policy discriminating against those who died in World War II in favor of former wars."

Barbers Raise Price Of Haircuts: Bald-headed men declare war. That's what happened here within the past 24 hours. Those who are short of locks (or just plain bald) declare they will either engage a barber of their own on a monthly basis or cut their own hair. They declare that "it isn't worth sixty-five cents" to shear a few hairs above the ears while others get a full-fledged shearing at the same price.

New Manager: John W. Brehm, former county treasurer and for 42 years a merchant tailor in Gettysburg, has been appointed manager of the Gettysburg Ice and Storage company succeeding C. Arthur Brame who has resigned. Mr. Brame's resignation became effective on Friday and Mr. Brehm assumed his new duties today. Mr. Brame is a former prothonotary of Adams County and at one time was clerk to the Adams county commissioners. He has not announced his future plans.

Groom-To-Be Injured: Richard Glenn Arentz, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Arentz, R. 1, who was to have been married today, was in the Warner Hospital instead, suffering from fractures of both ankles and a fractured vertebrae as a result of a 42-foot fall Friday. Richard Coleri, by whom Arentz was employed, said that the man was repairing the roof of a dance pavilion owned by the state in the Mt. Alto State forest. Apparently he slipped from a scaffolding erected in a cupola for use of the men repairing the roof and landed, feet first, on the dance floor, 42 feet below. Arentz and Miss Nellie Mae Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, Fayetteville, were scheduled to be married today.

Mrs. Harpster Installed: A Gettysburg resident, Mrs. Marcela Harpster, wife of Chief of Police Robert C. Harpster, was installed as treasurer of the Ladies Auxiliary of the state Fraternal Order of Police Sunday afternoon at the Hotel Yorktown in York. The York meeting marked the launching of the first state auxiliary in Pennsylvania of the FOP.

Medics Elect New Member: At the October meeting of the Adams County Medical Society Dr. David C. Stoner was elected to membership. Dr. Stoner graduated from Gettysburg college in 1933 and from the University of Pennsylvania Medical School in 1939. He served his internship at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Philadelphia. From 1939 to 1947 he served in the Navy Medical Corps and had attained the rank of commander when discharged. During his navy career he was stationed at the National Naval Medical Center, Bethesda, Md.; Bureau of Medicine and Surgery, Navy Department, Washington, D. C., and aboard the hospital ship U. S. S. Solace.

Five Historical Markers Put Up: Five new historical markers have been erected in Adams County whose county seat, Gettysburg, and its environs, already hold one of the greatest concentration of such markers in the world. These new markers, how-

Today's Talk

ON DESERVING

We do not always get all we deserve, but we get much that we do, and this much that we get is as payment for our own personal efficiency and enterprise.

The things which we go after and attain we most certainly earn and deserve. The hue and cry that are made by so many who have not the things they desire is but an echo of inactivity and laziness. There are exceptions, of course, but this is a general truth that may be depended upon.

All of us are able to look about us and see the examples of those who have gone ahead and done their jobs, asking naught of anyone, and who have accomplished vastly more than we have with perhaps less ability.

When I have come across an unusually successful man, and have inquired into the secret history of his success, I have always found that the means employed have been those that only the rare and courageous would ever attempt or undergo.

I have in mind three authors who are today among the treasured of our literature. One lived upon peanuts for a period and wrote his first novels in a cellar. Another wrote through all sorts of privations, while his wife kept a boarding house, and they lived upon canned foods. The other was for years a vagabond, sleeping where he might find a place to shelter himself. But at the close, all were honored by both high and low — and left behind works that lived. Did they deserve their fame?

Many young men and women have been suddenly thrown out of employment because they believed themselves discriminated against. As a matter of fact, they no longer deserved confidence because of carelessness, or a lack of comprehension of the things given them to do. People who do their work better than it has ever been done before are rarely displaced. To deserve, in itself, is to get!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Art Of Never Minding"

Just Folks

POSSESSIONS
What is more to be desired?
Or when a bed when one is tired?
Or when thirsty can you think
Money sweeter than a drink?

When you're hungry, would you take
Stocks and bonds instead of steak?
If perchance you're feeling cold,
Could you wrap yourself in gold?

When to swimming you're inclined
What thing better could you find
As you join the revelers there?
Than a bathing suit to wear?

Food and drink for appetite;
Clothes to wear; a bed at night;
Fire for warmth; find happiness!
These are all the rich possess.

ever, placed by the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, Harrisburg, are not concerned with the Battle of Gettysburg, but rather with earlier events of historical import in this region. One of the markers, located along State Route 16, at Zora, recalls that the first permanent white settler west of the Susquehanna River lived nearby. It commemorates the home of John Hanson Steelman, the renowned Indian trader and interpreter, a descendant of the early Swedish families on the Delaware river, who lived here prior to 1749. Another interesting home site marked by the state Commission is that of Mary Jemison, the so-called "White Squaw of the Genesee." The marker stands along U. S. 30, where State Route 234 turns north into the picturesque Buchanan Valley. The only new marked within Gettysburg itself stands along U. S. 15 and locates the Dobbin House, now a museum restored and re-furnished in keeping with its 1776 original. Built by the Rev. Alexander Dobbin, the building was used for more than 25 years as one of the first classical schools west of the Susquehanna. North of Gettysburg along State Route 34, another new marker directs attention to the famous Russell Tavern, one of the few authentic buildings still in existence with an uncontented claim to the proud boast: "George Washington slept here." The President and Commander-in-Chief lodged here in October 1795, during the military campaign against western Pennsylvania farmers and their "Whiskey Rebellion." Still another old historic Adams county building merits one of the new markers. The marker, however, stands along U. S. 30, four miles north of Conewago Chapel, built by the Jesuits in 1787 and still in use. One of the oldest in the United States, the mission was founded in 1730. It is the first Sacred Heart church in Pennsylvania and its parish once embraced hundreds of square miles of wilderness.

MIAMI FACES MAJOR FOE IN FLORIDA STATE

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Miami Hurricanes, who just this week barged into the select list of the nation's top college football teams, face a major challenge to that high standing tonight in rugged and underrated Florida State.

Coach Andy Gustafson's Hurricanes, who gained the No. 9 spot on the weekly Associated Press ranking of the nation's best, go against a team that is emerging as one of the top defensive clubs in the South.

Their clash, one of three major Friday night games, ushers in a weekend that could be a tough one for the top teams. In addition to Miami, at least four other nationally ranked squads have their work cut out for them.

WORK CUT OUT

Those include Penn State (No. 4) at Rice, Georgia Tech (No. 5) vs. Louisiana State in the nationally televised game, Mississippi (No. 7) vs. Houston at Jackson, Miss., and Army (No. 10) at Michigan State, all on Saturday.

Miami figures for a struggle between its multiple T offense, built around the passing wizardry of George Mira, and Florida State's unscored upon defense. The Seminoles massacred the Citadel (49-0) and Furman (42-0) and played a solid Kentucky team to a scoreless tie in three outings this season.

Miami has a 2-0 mark and it moved into the top 10 on strength of last week's 21-20 edge over Texas Christian, which featured a contest between two candidates for All America honors at quarterback, Mira and the Horned Frogs' Sonny Gibbs.

OTHER BIG ONES

Other major games tonight include New Mexico State at Detroit and Furman at George Washington.

The Mississippi-Houston game Saturday was shifted from racially troubled Oxford, Miss., to Jackson on Army orders to prevent

FRESNO STATE TOP GRID TEAM

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fresno State gained a 17-point margin over Pittsburg (Kan.) State, last year's champion, for the No. 1 ranking in the first weekly small college rankings by an Associated Press nationwide panel of experts.

Fresno State (2-0) took three of the eight first place votes and had 61 points on the basis of 10 for a first place vote, 9 for second, 8 for third and so on.

Pittsburg (3-0) had two first place votes and 44 points. Florida A and M (1-0) Southern Mississippi (3-0) and Slippery Rock (3-0) each got one first place vote.

The top 10: Fresno State; Pittsburg (Kan.); Florida A&M; Southern Mississippi; Texas Southern; William Jewell; Linfield; Slippery Rock; Hillsdale and Southeast Louisiana.

Further disorders as a result of Negro James Meredith's attendance at Ole Miss.

But there were no orders to prevent the trouble Ole Miss can expect from Houston, an unbeaten independent that's anxiously angling for a spot in the big time.

Penn State (2-0) also can expect some rough going from Houston's cross-town neighbor, Rice. The Owls have played only once, a 6-6 tie with tough Louisiana State.

OTHERS ON LIST

Georgia Tech (2-0) catches a Tiger on the rebound in LSU (1-0-1), as the Baton Rouge boys try to regain a top spot.

Army (2-0) hopes the Paul Diesel magic and the Cadets' new three-platoon offense will be sufficient to make up for the 38-0 humiliation they suffered at the hands of Michigan (0-1) last year.

Other games involving the top 10 include No. 1 Ohio State (1-0) at UCLA in the opener for the California power; second-ranked Alabama (2-0) vs. Vanderbilt, yet to score in losing two games, at Birmingham; Tulane (0-2) at third-ranked Texas (2-0); Southern California (2-0), No. 6 at Iowa Rings left from coffee and tea, especially lingering when white china or earthenware cups are used, can be easily removed with a little baking soda.

Many southern cooks like to use a shallow baking dish for spoon bread.

(1-0) and eighth-ranked Washington (2-0) playing host to Kansas State, loser of two and still looking for its first score.

GIANTS FRET OVER LETDOWN AGAINST YANKS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The

San Francisco Giants battled today to overcome the psychological letdown from their frenzied National League pennant race.

Players blamed the letdown as much as Whitey Ford and Clete Boyer for the 6-2 New York Yankee victory in the opening game of the World Series.

Manager Alvin Dark denied his club was tired and credited the Yankee victory to fine pitching by Ford.

"We'll get them," Dark said in his usual quiet, determined manner.

Willie Mays told newsmen after the opener that it hadn't excited him, explaining:

"All the tense is out of me. I'm dead."

Slumping Orlando Cepeda said that he hadn't felt any of the tension he expected in a World Series opener.

"I left all my tense in Los Angeles," Orlando said.

The Giants won the pennant with a four-run ninth inning rally that beat the Dodgers 6-4 Wednesday in the deciding game of the NL playoff.

"I think we were a bit off after the playoff," Harvey Kuenn said. "We were talking it up on the bench the whole time, but it's just something where you say you've got to give extra and it isn't there."

"I think our lift will return after the one-day 'rest' from the playoff."

Losing pitcher Billy O'Dell summed up the letdown when he said, "Of course you get excited for a World Series, but we've been excited for a long time now. It's been one heck of a season."

Winless Bullets, Lehigh Clash Saturday In MAC Grid Game At Bethlehem

Coach Gene Haas and his Gettysburg College football team will attempt to break into the win column Saturday afternoon when the Bullets tangle with Lehigh University in a 1:30 p.m. contest in Bethlehem.

Gettysburg dropped its first two encounters to Bucknell and Delaware, while Lehigh has also had a tough time finding its mark, losing to Delaware and Harvard. The Bullets are 0-2 in the Middle Atlantic Conference university division while Lehigh is 0-1.

The Bullet ground game, which stood out so well against Bucknell, was stopped cold by the powerful Blue Hen squad. Consequently Gettysburg was forced to the air, but is expected to return to the ground against the Engineers. Phil Parsons, Cherry Hill, N. J., who gained 157 yards in his first outing, was held to a net minus seven yards rushing on four carries against Delaware. Reed Ernst, Camp Hill, has been looking better each game at the quarterback slot, and will start his third contest at that position. Ernst has completed eight of 17 attempts for 113 yards.

TRIO SURPRISES

Haas was able to take a look at practically everyone on his roster last week and found a few surprises. Ralph Sorrentino, a senior who saw action for the first time in his varsity career, was named Gettysburg's back of the week because of his running, pass receiving and defensive work. Sorrentino has been plagued with injuries for two seasons.

Other bright performers included sophomore Connie Snyder, Philadelphia, and Tony Presogna, Curwensville. Snyder is used primarily on defense while Presogna has the potential of becoming a top flight rusher.

Dave Wehr, Tamaqua, became the team's leading pass receiver, when he pulled down four aerials for 78 yards and set up Gettysburg's lone TD drive last week.

Haas has indicated he will stick with the same starting lineup he used the first two games. Connie Snyder and Presogna are expected to see more action along with Sorrentino.

LEHIGH STILL STRONG

Lehigh was hit hard by last June's graduation, but is still a team to be respected. The Engineers had to shift personnel in both the line and backfield. Lehigh, which lost four solid starters, is playing its first season under new head coach Mike Cooley. Three of the most noticeable losses are tackles Mike Semchick and Reed Bohovich and fullback Boyd Taylor.

The Engineers probable starting unit against the Bullets will include: Ends, Andy Larko, 6' 2 1/2", 195; tackles, Bill DiVincenzi, 6' 4", 200, and Charlie Gibson, 6' 2", 205; guards, Henry Goodrich, 5' 10", 190, and Freeman Hendrich, 6' 1", 205; and center Dan Berkey, 5' 11", 205-pounds.

Walt King, York, will be stationed at quarterback with sophomore Mike Noel, also of York, working from the fullback slot. Pat Clark, the third Yorker on the squad, will team with Jim Wilson, Montclair, N. J., at the halfback slots.

SETTLE RACE TRACK STRIKE

CHERRY HILL, N.J. (AP)—Picket lines were removed from the Garden State Race Track Wednesday night after an agreement was reached for reinstatement of 60 maintenance workers dismissed last week.

After a long negotiating session, Teamsters Union Local 676, which represents the workers, said that "Lincoln Maintenance Co. has agreed to the requests that all employees involved in the dispute will be rehired and there will be no reprisals as a result of picketing activities."

Lincoln Maintenance, a New York City firm, holds the new contract for maintenance work at the track. The employees had originally balked at working for the firm, claiming that Lincoln paid an hourly scale below that which they had been receiving.

Despite picketing Wednesday, Garden State opened its extended fall meet which runs to Dec. 5 with Interwen ($15) winning the richest running of the Princeton Handicap.

EASTON FACES ALTOONA HIGH

By DAVE LEHERR
HARRISBURG (AP)—It will be East versus West Saturday when mighty Easton tackles powerful Altoona in one of the top school football attractions of 1962 in Pennsylvania.

Both teams have won one apiece in their previous encounters, but Altoona, a perennial powerhouse in the WPIAL, is listed a slight favorite in this year's rubber match.

The Mountain Lions, with 14 returning lettermen from last year, have won 4 in a row this season and have piled up a total of 141 points, including a 60-0 rout of Pittsburgh Schenley and a 43-13 triumph over Windber.

Easton, on the other hand, lost most of its lettermen through graduation including its entire starting backfield, and is 1-1 on the season, losing to Nesheim 13-6 in the opener, then storming back last week to beat Allentown 42-6.

One thing the Red Rovers will have in their favor is the home advantage—an important factor in the cross-state rivalry. Easton won its game at Easton in 1960 13-6 while the Lions got their victory at Altoona last year 33-0. But it still looks like Altoona from here.

The contest heads several key battles this weekend. Others find Tamaqua clashing with Mahanoy City in a battle of unbeaten in the East Penn Conference, New Castle taking on Alliquippa in a WPIAL contest and defending champion Harrisburg Harris meeting Steelton-Highspire in a top Central Penn game.

FORD HASN'T FOUND MAYS' WEAKNESS YET

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—"If Willie has a weakness I haven't found it yet," Whitey Ford grinned when he said it, poking fun at himself in an hour of victory.

Ford had just won a record 10th World Series game for the New York Yankees, beating the San Francisco Giants 6-2 in the opener at Candlestick Park Thursday. The Giants got 10 hits and Willie Mays had three.

"I should be happy," said Ford. "Willie is only hitting .750 against me in the series. Actually, I'm improving. In All-Star games he's hitting around .300 (6 out of 7) against me. He's one of the best hitters in baseball. I don't feel too bad."

17TH SERIES START

Ford struck out Mays the last time.

The 33-year-old Yankee southpaw broke a record by just showing up for the opener. It was his ninth series, most of any pitcher. Ford already held that record and extended several other marks. This was his 17th series start and 17th game. He has 118 innings, 76 strikeouts and eight putouts, all records.

One of Whitey's streaks ended when the Giants squeezed home a run in the second inning on Jose Pagan's bunt. He had not allowed a run over 32-2-3 innings starting with Oct. 8, 1960 against Pittsburgh. He broke Babe Ruth's old mark last year.

"I wasn't concerned about the streak any more than I was concerned last year when I set it. I've got too many other things to think about when I'm pitching."

GLAD EXPECTS HARRIERS TO PERFORM WELL

Despite having one of the youngest teams in history, Coach Hal Glad, Gettysburg College cross-country tutor, predicts that his squad will make a little better showing this season than it has in the past. The Bullet harriers inaugurate their 1962 campaign Saturday afternoon against American University in Washington.

"Barring injuries, this team will do better than last season," Glad said. "We have better balance and the sophomores have been pushing our two veterans hard. We will be carrying eight men on the roster and I feel that any one of the eight is capable of finishing a meet in the top of the order."

SALMON IS ACE

Ed Salmon, Lemoyne, and Jim Lombardi, Montclair, N. J., provide the big punch. Salmon, who has been cracking both cross-country and track records since his first season on the varsity, will be the man to watch. The 5'9", 142-pound speedster holds both the school and home course record, turning in a blistering 21:57 over the four-mile layout. He turned in his record breaking performance against American U. a year ago.

Lombardi pushed Salmon hard throughout the 1961 season and at the present seems to be more prepared for the season's opener. Gettysburg will be bolstered by the services of Sophomores Roger Ecker, Gettysburg; Bob Loomis, Lebanon, N. J.; and Jerry Staub, Springfield, Pa. Staub has been the strongest of the sophomores during pre-season practice.

Also coming along strong and exhibiting fine potential are Pete Herslow, Short Hills, N. J.; Tom Black, Springfield, Pa.; and Dave Bloomer, Phoenixville. The schedule: October 5, American U. away; 9, Washington College, away; 13, Temple, away; 17, Johns Hopkins, away; 19, Franklin and Marshall, home; 24, Dickinson, home; 27, Lafayette, away; 30, Delaware Valley, away; November 2, Susquehanna, home; 7, Elizabethtown, away.

START SOCCER CAMPAIGN AT LEHIGH TODAY

With seven men forming the nucleus for this season's soccer team, Gettysburg College opened its 1962 campaign this afternoon against the Engineers of Lehigh in Bethlehem.

Despite being hit hard by graduation a year ago, Lou Hammann, starting his fourth season as head coach, is looking for a better all around attack than he had last year. "Compared to last season," Hammann said, "this season's squad is more flexible in the front line and it controls the ball a lot better. Our holdovers have shown a hundred per cent improvement and we have one of the best crops of sophomores I have ever seen."

The line, which was hit the hardest by graduation, has now become the strongest point. This came about through a few basic shifts in personnel and a tremendous response for more coordination on play and pass patterns between the line and backs.

Durocher might simplify the issue by taking the managerial job he apparently has been offered by the Cleveland Indians. The rumble here during the playoffs was that the Indians wanted to give Leo $80,000 or $85,000 a year.

DUROCHER IS CRITICIZING WALT ALSTON

By CHARLES MAHER
Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Los Angeles Dodgers will probably take their time about announcing whether Manager Walter Alston has been re-hired or retired.

But one thing already seems apparent: If Alston is back next season, Coach Leo Durocher won't be. And vice versa.

Durocher is now openly criticizing the way Alston has run the club.

"I'D HAVE WON"

The night the Dodgers were beaten 6-4 by San Francisco in the final game of the National League playoffs, Durocher turned up at a restaurant on the Sunset Strip. Two men who were present said that Durocher was telling those around him that Alston botched the last playoff game and that "I could have won it."

At least a few Dodger players also have developed strong anti-Alston attitudes.

Later in the final playoff game, three Dodgers were listening to the play-by-play on radio in the dressing room. One hadn't played that day. The other two had been taken out of the game.

One of the players asked disgustedly: "Now what the hell is Alston doing walking (Ed) Bailey to get at (Jim) Davenport?"

The other two players nodded agreement.

"PRACTICAL PRINCIPLES" Galatians 6:19

The Apostle Paul in the Sixth Chapter of his letter to the church in Galatia offers some practical principles that if applied to our everyday living could effect marvelous change in us as persons as well as those lives which we touch. World tensions are a nerve-racking thing these days! Walls divide the city of Berlin; people are persecuted while the Cuban government builds an arsenal just off our southern border; and in the United States, men and women riot because a person of a different skin color attempts to exercise his right to a college education.

Indeed, everywhere, tensions surround us and remind us of danger and perhaps doom. And yet, if one considers some of the tensions within one's own community, those of a world-wide scope are really quite removed. For in each community in Adams County there are walls that separate people — tensions over organizations, impatience with one's neighbor, ill-feeling because of things said or done and such tensions remind us that we would do well to let the practical principles that St. Paul suggests become uppermost in our lives. We, you the reader, and I, the writer, need a change of attitude regarding our relations with others.

Consider what would happen, for example, if we bore one another's burdens. How well we bear gossip, maliciousness, harsh words, faults, and the like when these are often the very burdens which become unbearable to our neighbor. There are those who are lonely, sick, afraid, disturbed.

Think for just a minute of the patients in the Warner Hospital and some of the burdens they bear. Bring yourself, today, to feel their sickness that you can be receptive, encouraging and supportive in their trouble. Take some time to bear another's burden!

SERVE ONE ANOTHER
Consider what would happen if we did not grow weary in well doing but instead continued steadfastly to serve one another in love! At times we all want to give up in despair as we wonder if it is worthwhile to practice a Christian faith in the face of ridicule and irresponsibility. Yet it would serve us all well to remember that we are somewhat like the spring coupler on a railroad train. This coupler enables one or two engines to move vast numbers of cars because with the coupler each car starts individually. The engine could not move if it were to start all the cars at once. So it is with us! If instead of growing weary in well doing, growing weary in our inability to move people to Jesus Christ, we would begin to move persons, one at a time beginning with ourselves, the harvest would be a rich one indeed. If you have taken the time to read this article, take the time to begin to pray, speak, and live some of the practical principles suggested herein! Amen.

Short of the Goal

Larry is a fullback. You ought to see him finding those holes in the line ... driving off tackle ... slashing through the secondary. Oh, Larry has scored a dozen touchdowns!

But he can't kick an extra-point! The cross-bar is too high, the goal posts are too far away.

Just give Larry a year or two—with lots of practice. Then we'll win those close ones ... 7-6 ... 14-13 ... 21-20!

Never worry about failure when its cause is being overcome. Don't lower the goal ... keep trying. Grow stronger. You'll reach it!

That's one of the lessons of life that Larry has learned on Sundays when he goes to church with his family ... one of many lessons that help us achieve our best every day of the week.

Fire Prevention Week — October 7 To 13

Firemen Plan Display Of Equipment Sunday For Fire Prevention Week Oct. 7-13

Further plans for the Fire Prevention Week display of equipment here Sunday afternoon were outlined at a recent meeting of the Adams County Volunteer Firemen's Association at McSherrytown.

Fire Marshal John Murren asked each company to have at least one piece of equipment on Lincoln Square here by 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Accompanying the equipment is to be a crew which can operate it and explain to the general public the use and operation of the equipment. He said that it is hoped that the program will be a continual demonstration of fire equipment use from 1 o'clock until 4 o'clock. Further details of the Sunday program will be worked out, he said, at the meeting of the county Association of Fire Chiefs at York Springs Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

Murren also gave details of the purchase of 3,049 school book covers for $203.24 in a joint program of the firemen's association and the chiefs, association. Each unit will pay one half the cost. Murren said the covers will be distributed next week to all Fifth and Sixth Grade students in the county. The superintendents and teachers of the grades are "active in this endeavor to have the covers on the books of the school children, knowing that the information on the covers concerning fire prevention will be of importance not only to the youngsters but his family."

KNOW DETOURS

A letter from Clyde Garber, county superintendent of highways, was read stating that Garber agreed with the opinion of the firemen as expressed at their convention that it would be helpful for fire companies to know the location and duration of detours so they may plan how to reach homes and places affected by the detours in event of emergency. A committee comprised of Donald Smeeth, Robert Heyser and Eugene Murren was appointed to meet with Garber to work out details of a plan to notify the firemen of the detours. Heyser was directed to meet with Garber to set the date for the meeting.

November 1, 1963, was announced as the date by which all of the firemen's radio communications systems must be converted to the narrow band.

York County Fire Marshal Edward Flickinger, Hanover, reported on a recent meeting of the International Fire Chiefs Association at Toronto, Canada, which he attended.

MANY LOSE LIVES

Reports at the convention stressed, he said, that many firemen are being killed through failure to use protective equipment especially smoke masks or failing to take time to adjust the equipment they are using properly. He also reported on a visit to the laboratories used in connection with the international fire chiefs at which paints, etc., are classified according to their inflammability. He said convention reports showed one out of every five major fires is set by an arsonist.

Firemen's Association President Melvin Eisenhart appointed George Becker, George Miller and Francis Klunk as the program committee for the meeting January 7 at Midway.

McSherrytown Mayor F. Joseph Sneringer welcomed the 75 firemen from 20 companies present and congratulated the firemen on their work. Associate Judge Clarence Deardorff, chairman of the firemen, conducted devotions.

PREDICTS REDS WILL BEAT US TO THE MOON

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Rocket fuel specialist V. H. B. Willhite of Ogden, Utah, predicts that the Soviet Union will beat the United States to the moon, largely because the United States failed to concentrate on solid-fuel rockets.

Willhite is director of technical operations for Tiokol Chemical Corp., a developer and manufacturer of solid fuels for rockets.

Interviewed Thursday during a visit to attend a solid-fuels conference, Willhite said, "If America had invested in solid fuel rockets eight years ago, we'd have beat the Russians into space. We would have orbited the first satellite and would now be close to landing a man on the moon."

NO CHANCE FOR U. S.

"The Russians are ahead of us because they started earlier and their leaders thought bigger. There's not a chance in God's earth of the U. S. beating the Russians to the moon. We just don't have the booster capability."

He urged that development begin immediately of a solid fuel rocket engine with five million pounds of thrust. It could be built in three years, he said.

Willhite was a speaker at the conference sponsored by the American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical and Petroleum Engineers and the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The president of the American Bar Association says President Kennedy acted correctly in the University of Mississippi integration controversy.

Reds Retaliate; Oust Naval Attache

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet government today accused Cmdr. Raymond D. Smith, the assistant U.S. naval attache at the embassy here, of espionage. He was ordered to leave the country immediately.

It was assumed that Smith's expulsion was ordered in retaliation for the expulsion from the United States this week of two members of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations accused of buying defense secrets from a U.S. sailor.

The Soviet Foreign Ministry ordered Smith's expulsion in a note handed to U.S. Consul James R. McSweeney this morning.

The Soviet note said Smith had "carried out espionage through observation of military objects."

"He had detailed maps and notes and special apparatus the nature of which left no doubt he was engaged in espionage," the note said.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Mickey Mantle extended his undesirable World Series record Thursday by striking out twice and lifting his total whiffs to 38. The Yankee center fielder topped Babe Ruth's mark last year. Mickey went hitless in four tries and his series average dipped six points to .271.

Orange, N.J., told 500 members of the Philadelphia Bar Association Thursday that it was the President's duty to uphold and enforce the decisions of the federal courts.

He also defended the American Bar against criticism by Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy, who commented on the Bar's failure to speak out on the Mississippi situation. Smith said he was silent because he thought it improper to speak so long as proceedings were before the court.

Smith said that although the U.S. Supreme Court may make decisions which seem unwise to some people, "once that court has spoken, there is no appeal except by amendment of the Constitution."

SUZANNE CLIFT ADMITS SHE KILLED MAN

BOSTON (AP)—Police said today a pretty young post-debutante has admitted slaying an electronics engineer whose nude body was found in her luxurious Beacon Hill apartment.

Det. Lt. Edward Sherry said Miss Suzanne Clift, 21, was booked on a murder charge and would be arraigned today in Boston Municipal Court.

She is accused of the shooting of Piero Brentani, 27. His body, a 22-caliber bullet in the back of the head, was found Wednesday in the girl's padlocked bedroom.

Sherry said the girl was very calm, almost stoic as she told her story. He said she gave no reason for the slaying.

VERY CALM

She identified a 22-caliber pistol, found in the kitchen of the apartment she shared with her socially prominent grandmother, Barbara Pierce Pearmain, 71, as the murder weapon.

Police said Miss Clift told them she shot Brentani early Monday in the room where he was found. She said she did not leave the house until Tuesday.

The slender blonde girl told of flying to South America and back.

NIECE OF ACTOR

Miss Clift, niece of movie actor Montgomery Clift, was arrested shortly after she entered Massachusetts General Hospital Thursday night.

Police found her after getting a lead from a taxicab driver.

Brentani held degrees from the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology and Harvard University.

Mrs. Pearmain found the body when she returned home from a 10-day vacation at her summer home in Oserville on Cape Cod.

HAD BLIND DATE

Miss Clift is a graduate of a Boston finishing school and attended Mt. Holyoke College. She recently worked as a secretary.

Her mother, Mrs. Peter Thomson, divorced and remarried, and also living on Beacon Hill, said Brentani was "a fine sensitive fellow" whom Suzanne met on a blind date two years ago.

Brentani, who worked for Minneapolis-Honeywell Co., was a native of Dresden, Germany.

Yankee left fielder Tom Tresh played in his first World Series in his rookie campaign. His father, Mike Tresh, a catcher, played 12 American League seasons and never got into the series. Mike spent 11 years with the Chicago White Sox and one with the Cleveland Indians.

Twenty years ago today, Johnny Beazley scattered seven hits and Enos Slaughter and Whitey Kurowski homered as the St. Louis Cardinals beat the Yanks 4-2 and won the 1942 World Series, 4 games to 1.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Life is a series of small dooms.

The human spirit is so made that it can weather well the major perils of existence—such as wars, earthquakes, marrying the wrong girl and seeing the other fellow get the job we wanted.

These great shocks to being we can take in stride, and still march chin up into the everblowing wind. It's the little flaw in living in an imperfect world that gets us down.

We are so made that we can put up with a piece of toast wholly burned on both sides better than we can one that is only partly burned on a single side. Yes, the fortitude with which we can meet the big disaster fails us in facing the gnaw-bites of a tiny recurrent annoyance.

FAVORITE CHINK

Everyone has his own favorite chink in the armor of his aplomb, that little touch of grayness that keeps his day from being a happy adventure in living color.

With me it's the problem of dealing with wire coat hangers.

I don't know just when I began to hate wire coat hangers. Science to the contrary, I feel sure it is an inherited fear. My mother doesn't recall being frightened by a waving wire coat hanger in the months before my birth, but it must have happened.

Certainly as long as I can remember, I have been haunted by the problem of wire coat hangers, just as some people are fated forever to have their shoe laces break whenever they dress in a hurry.

SOME CAN DO IT

There are men who can laugh at wire coat hangers, and treat them as faithful metal servants. They can drape their pants at night in a wire coat hanger, and awaken in the morning and find them there smooth and unwrinkled.

Not me. No matter how carefully I hang my coat and trousers on a wire coat hanger—even if I tie them on with my belt—all I have to do is look away, and I hear the soft plop of clothing landing on the floor.

There are also men who can close their eyes and reach into a forest of wire coat hangers and pluck out one dedicated to his purpose.

Not me. If there were only two wire coat hangers left in the world, and I reached for one, it would become entangled in the other, and I would tug fruitlessly.

THEY MADE MORE

For years I tried to fight destiny by twisting apart and throwing away every wire coat hanger I met, and encouraged my friends to do likewise. The result: They made more.

Now don't tell me the simple solution is to buy wooden clothes hangers. Twice I've had my wife buy a dozen wooden clothes hangers.

What happened? Within two days the wooden hangers would be mysteriously transferred to my wife's closet. And when I opened my own closet, there were my suits crumpled on the floor beneath a row of tangled wire coat hangers darkly grinning.

Whitey Ford's earned run average for 17 series games is a sparkling 1.96 with only 26 earned runs in 118 innings. He has walked only 28 and struck out 78.

Willie Mays' three singles in four times at bat boosted the Giant outfielder's series batting average from .222 to .275. He has 11 hits in 40 attempts.

It Took Revolution To Bring Restaurants Into Financial Reach Of All

Americans enjoy eating out more than any other people in the world. Yet, surprisingly enough, the word "restaurant" is fairly new as words go. The word "restaurant" comes from the Latin root "restaurare," meaning "to restore." In the 16th century this Latin root word attained culinary significance by being applied to other "restorative" foods, especially grays, soups, bouillons and similar preparations.

In 40 B.C. a Roman inkeeper named Sestius Locates served a special meal for ship brokers too busy to return to their villas. He is thus credited with serving the first "businessman's lunch." Some authorities claim that the "medieval age" of restaurants was during the French Revolution (1789). Aristocrats in hiding were fed secretly by their servants. Other members of the displaced aristocracy heard of this and were willing to pay for being served a well prepared meal. After the new government was established, the reputation of these meals continued and the houses where they were served became known as public restaurants.

FIRST RESTAURANT

Actually the first public eating place to be designated as a restaurant was opened in Paris in 1765. It was called Le Champ d'Oiseau and its proprietor was a gentleman called Boulanger.

Over the doorway a Latin inscription: "Venite ad me omnes qui stomacho laboratis et ego restaurabo vos" — "Come to me all whose stomachs cry out in anguish and I shall restore you." Boulanger's place was in innovation in Paris in that it specialized in well prepared food rather than drink. Patrons were quick to discover that its succulent dishes did indeed restore the spirit and repair the ravages of hunger. It seemed quite natural to call Le Champ d'Oiseau a restaurant — literally, a repairer.

In England, commoners had patronized eating places called "ordinary" as far back as 1577. These were taverns which featured a single meal each day, served at a long, common table and usually low in price. But it was not until the beginning of the 1800's that the English borrowed the restaurant habit from their French neighbors. In England, the term "restaurant" implied a lofty establishment where the titled Englishman might entertain at a glittering supper after the theater. But by the latter part of the century, the phrase, "popular, low-price restaurant" appeared often and it indicated that restaurants now catered to the working and middle classes as well as the aristocracy.

In the United States, the pattern was much the same. Although colonial America had its "ordinaries," the first restaurant proper was Delmonico's which opened in lower New York in 1827. It marked the beginning of a trend toward lavish restaurants which flourished in major cities coast to coast, until the end of the Gay Nineties.

Here, too, it took a revolution to bring restaurants within the financial reaches of all. In this case, it was the industrial revolution which began in the 1830's sending increasing numbers of men and women into factories and offices. They had to be fed quickly and inexpensively. To meet this need the first cafeteria was opened in New York in 1885 and was soon followed by others in Chicago and the West. The overwhelming success of the self service cafeteria idea pointed out the nationwide demand for low cost meals.

Menus, as we know them today date back only to 1835, but for thousands of years before that a menu had been in use. These took the form of listings on walls, slates or skins.

Bakers in ancient Rome were required to bake their names into each loaf and heavy penalties were imposed on those who cheated on ingredients or weight.

And 300 miles away in Springfield, Mo. Edwin A. Walker, former Army major general, who led some students in the rioting, got a court ruling that could lead to his release from a federal prison.

The moving of the football game and its accompanying celebrations, the Defense Department said, was "on the basis of information which indicated it would be unwise for the game to go ahead at Oxford."

Millsaps College, with an enrollment around 1,000, said the transfer of the Mississippi-Houston game would hurt its game with Austin College. Millsaps lodged a protest with the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

In Springfield, Mo., a U.S. district judge ordered the federal government to show cause why Walker, who once commanded American troops in Germany, should not be released on bail. Walker is charged with inciting insurrection and seditious conspiracy. His bond was set at $100,000 after his arrest in Oxford where he led students in a charge against federal marshals. He was flown to Springfield for medical examination.

Completes Course At Army School

Pvt. John B. Bream, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth D. Bream, Orrtanna R. 1, recently completed two weeks of amphibious training with other members of the Second Armored Division at Little Creek, Va.

Bream was trained in all phases of modern amphibious warfare, including shipboard drills, an orientation to life aboard ship and a tactical landing exercise.

The 22-year-old soldier, a combat construction specialist in Company C of the division's 17th Engineer Battalion which is regularly stationed at Fort Hood, Tex., entered the Army last January and completed basic training at Fort Jackson, S. C. He is a 1957 graduate of Gettysburg High School and was employed by El Vista Orchard Inc., Fairfield, before entering the Army.

ZANUCK FACES HARD TASK TO SAVE STUDIO

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The president of 20th Century-Fox strode out of his office and returned a minute later with a glass of beer. Darryl Francis Zanuck sipped the beer, nudged an oversized cigar and paced the room. It is a modest office, compared to his cavernous headquarters when he was chief of Fox production at the studio.

Papers are scattered in all parts of the room, international market reports occupy a chair, pending contracts fill a table. This is where Zanuck operates sometimes from dawn until after midnight.

DOWNWARD TREND

He is a single-minded man, and right now his crusade is to rescue the firm he helped found from the brink of bankruptcy. He paused to report his progress to a Hollywood visitor.

"I believe we are on our way toward stopping the downward trend," he said of the company that suffered an operating loss of $22.5 million last year.

"That should be followed by a holding-out period. Starting the first of the year, we will operate with a clean slate, but the effects of the new policies will not be seen until the end of 1963. I expect by the middle of July 1963, the upward trend will be starting.

EYES CLEOPATRA

"A lot depends on the pictures now in release and coming up for release. None of these are my own pictures except 'The Longest Day.' And it will not show much this year, as we will have only 50 roadshows world-wide. We'll know more about it after the general release in June 1963.

"Cleopatra looms large in our future, but even it will not be felt for a long time. We won't be able to get it out before late spring or early summer, and the roadshows do not bring immense profits.

"The only yardstick we have is the record of 'Ben-Hur.' If you checked its first six months, you'd think it was a flop. The next year—wham! The second year it did double the first, because it was in general release. That's the real gray."

CANCER TRIAL IN SECOND DAY

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A Pittsburgh carver, who claims Chesterfield cigarettes gave him lung cancer, testified under cross-examination Thursday that he also occasionally smoked stogies and a pipe before his illness.

It was the second straight day on the witness stand for Otto Pritchard, 64, in the U. S. District Court trial of his damage suit against the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co., maker of Chesterfields. Scheduled to testify was Dr. William F. Kramer, medical director of the Wampole Laboratories in Stamford Conn., who removed Pritchard's diseased right lung.

Pritchard said Kramer told him his lung cancer was caused by smoking cigarettes. Pritchard sued the Liggett & Myers in 1960 but the judge directed a verdict in favor of the company. The Third U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals later ordered a new trial, ruling the jury should DUBIOUS ABOUT DEODORANTS? There can be no doubt about the need for deodorants and antiperspirants. The human body produces one quart of perspiration daily. Left unchecked it is never offense-free—not in winter, not if a person is inactive, not even when the skin remains dry.

What women query is the relative effectiveness of various products and application methods. So let's investigate the main questions and find the answers:

Q. Should an underarm product be used directly after deodorizing? A. Only when the label so states. Even then some skins are sensitive to an immediate application. They can best be protected with a deodorant powder, until the period of sensitivity passes.

Q. Why does an antiperspirant sometimes discolor clothing? A. Because directions are not followed. An antiperspirant must be allowed to dry thoroughly before clothing comes in contact with it. Some types must be sponged with cool water after drying.

Q. Is it possible to build up a resistance to an antiperspirant? A. Yes, to a degree that it will become ineffective or slightly irritating. Either problem can be overcome by temporarily switching to another brand.

Q. What is the solution for perspiration that always resists check?

A. Investigate the really strong formulas. Your doctor or druggist can steer you.

Q. What methods insure daintiness? A. Use deodorant powder in shoes and under girdles. Apply underarm product after the daily bath, except when shaving is part of the program.

SENIOR LOOP SETS RECORD

NEW YORK (AP)—The National League, with a big boost from the Los Angeles Dodgers and the new Houston Colts and New York Mets, established a major league attendance record in 1962, the final figures revealed Wednesday.

The attendance at the final playoff game in Los Angeles hiked the senior circuit attendance to 11,360,377. The old record was 11,150,099 set by the American League in 1948.

The Dodgers, who established a home attendance record of 2,735,184 topped their 1961 total by 950,934. Three other teams finished ahead of last season's figures. They were San Francisco 201,923, Philadelphia 171,995 and St. Louis 98,500.

Altogether, the NL had a 30 per cent increase over 1961 when it had eight teams. The AL closed its campaign Sunday with an over-all attendance of 10,015,056—a drop of 1.5 per cent.

NEGRO COUNT RISES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Enrollment in Catholic Negro mission and parish schools rose 5 per cent last year to 97,887, says a report of the Commission for Catholic Missions Among the Colored People and the Indians. The figures do not include Negro students in predominantly white schools, but only those in 349 almost entirely Negro schools.

FOUNDER OF LEGION DIES

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP)—Funeral services will be held here Sunday for Maj. Gen. Eric Fisher Wood, ret., one of the founders of the American Legion, who died at his Bedford home Thursday at the age of 73, following a long illness. Burial will be in Arlington National Cemetery.

In a long and distinguished career Wood served in both the First and Second World wars; wrote a best-selling book, "Notebook of an Attache," at the age of 26; served in the 1920s as Republican Party state chairman for Pennsylvania; and helped design some of Pittsburgh's well-known landmarks as a member of the Ruten, Russell and Wood architecture firm.

Wood was one of the charter members of the American Legion upon its founding in Paris 1919, and in 1955 was made honorary national president. He is survived by two sons and one daughter.

WANTS "LANDSLIDE"

INDIANA, Pa. (AP)—Gov. Lawrence has urged "a Democratic landslide" in November to "keep Pennsylvania moving forward."

Speaking at a party meeting Thursday Lawrence said, "The work that lies ahead is too vital and important to every man, woman and child in this state for any one of us to sit it out or just take it easy."

Presence Of Non-catholics At Vatican Council Will Be Felt, Says Noted Reporter

EDITOR'S NOTE: For the first time this year's Vatican Council will be attended by observers from other denominations. This in itself is an indication of growing unity among Christians. Here, in the last of three articles, a Associated Press writer who will attend explores what this may mean in future years.

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Roman Catholicism maintains it is the "one true church."

However, when its historic 2nd Vatican Council convenes Oct. 11 in Rome, representatives of other communions also will be officially seated in the solemn assembly.

They also are somewhat part of Christianity, Rome recognizes, even though nominally outside the avowed one church.

It is a subtle but significant point, and offers a dramatic undercurrent to the council, first of its kind in nearly a century, and the only one ever held under Rome's auspices to be attended by those not in its fold.

WILL FEEL PRESENCE
Although the Protestant, Anglican and other "delegate-observers" will have no direct voice in the decisions, their presence will be felt, and their views may exercise a latent side effect on the proceedings.

One purpose of the council, says Pope John XXIII, is to help "clear away some of the roadblocks" to Christian reunion. He himself has been a prime mover in renewing links with Protestantism and Eastern Orthodoxy.

"Separated brethren," he calls them.

Although the council intends no direct moves for reunion at present, the fact that this is a future, inherent goal has been a paramount point of public interest in the council, both among Catholics and others.

HOPE AND DOUBTS
From pulpits of nearly every kind have come expressions of hope—and doubts—about possible steps in this direction.

Leaders of the Episcopal, United Presbyterian, Lutheran, Greek Orthodox and other churches in this country, as well as denominational officials abroad, have urged prayers among their members in the council's behalf.

"All Christians, whatever be their confession, hope and pray that this historic event will serve to advance the cause of unity for which our Lord prayed," says the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser 't'Hooft, general secretary of the World Council of Churches.

One key zone of past tension, already relaxed in some measure and which conceivably may be eased further, has been Rome's traditional aloofness from other denominations, on the ground that it is the only true church.

One proposal is that the council make absolutely clear that valid baptism, although conferred outside Roman Catholicism, joins a person to Christ and, at least in part, to His Church, thus affirming that true aspects of the church extend beyond Rome's administration.

This wouldn't automatically ease the long-standing doctrinal rifts, deepened by years of non-communication between Rome and other Christians.

But, it would, in the view of many church authorities, provide a basis for reciprocity and stimulate effort toward understanding and to overcome differences, when possible.

TO DISTRIBUTE GAS TAX FUND

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state has approved $10,251,422 in gasoline tax funds for distribution among the 2,561 political subdivisions in the state.

The money represents their share of the two-cents-a-gallon increase in the tax last year plus $3 million remaining of their share of the $30 million annual allocation out of the other five cents. The other $27 million was distributed last April.

Highways Secretary Park H. Martin said the checks would start going out this week.

STRINGS ATTACHED
They include a covering letter from Gov. Lawrence reminding the municipalities that they may use up to 75 per cent of it to match federal money available for public works in depressed areas and areas of chronic unemployment under the federal public works acceleration act of last Sept. 14.

State law stipulates that 25 per cent of the money be spent on local road work.

The money is distributed on the basis of a formula that allocates 60 per cent on mileage and 40 per cent on population.

In the new distribution, that figured out to $7.56 per mile and 25.6 cents per person in each of the municipalities.

New School Bus Plan To Be Tested

HARRISBURG (AP)—A revised formula for state school transportation subsidies will be given a two-year trial.

The State Council of Education Wednesday approved the test, which eventually could raise the subsidy an estimated $2-3.5 million annually.

Harold E. Speidel, director of school business services for the Department of Public Instruction, said the effect of the new subsidy would not be felt for at least two years, and then only slightly.

The formula would set $12 a day as the maximum wage rate for bus drivers, based on an hourly average rate of $2.25.

Other elements considered would be cost of financing vehicles, insurance, administrative costs, operating expenses.

The council also adopted a new regulation, effective Oct. 1, 1964, requiring elementary school teachers to spend at least 18 to 24 semester hours in college on an academic major in order to qualify.

People In The News
By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Jacqueline Kennedy has not only set off a national rage in bouffant hair styling, says Chain Store magazine, but she has boosted hair spray sales too. The New York-based trade magazine said bouffant hairdos have become so popular "that retail sales of hair sprays which hold such coifs in place jumped 15 per cent last year."

Leonid Brezhnev, president of the Soviet Union, gave a reception in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, but North Atlantic Treaty Organization ambassadors snubbed it in protest of his charge that their nations plotted a conspiracy against peace. U.S. Ambassador George F. Kennan said he would not have attended the reception anyhow because Brezhnev attacked the United States three times on his visit to Yugoslavia.

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—For 44 years not an elephant was born in this country.

Now two have arrived at the Portland Zoo within six months. The first was a 225-pound male born to an elephant named Belle last April. He now weighs 750 pounds.

The second arrived Wednesday, a female weighing 185 pounds. The mother is named Rosy.

There are two other adult females at the zoo and both are pregnant.

Special Aids For Brides Are Offered By USDA

MRS. HELEN D. TUNISON
Extension Home Economist

Something special for brides is available from the U.S. Department of Agriculture. The department has a packet of publications that will help new homemakers in buying, preparing and protecting food and in the protection and care of fabrics. This service is a part of the department's centennial program this year.

In an attractive folder entitled "Packet for the Bride," the assortment of publications ranges from recipe booklets to tips on home laundering. Other publications tell how to buy foods according to USDA grades.

The packet is the latest innovation in the department's efforts to make its consumer services more readily available and widely known. Single copies of "Packet for the Bride" will be sent free to brides who request it from the Office of Information, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C.

BUYING GUIDE
Comparing available products helps a consumer get his money's worth. Several manufacturers may produce the same item with a slight variation and each manufacturer will emphasize the characteristics that make his product different.

Comparison of the appearance of items, appearance of size of containers use, or prices aren't enough. The consumer must also compare basic characteristics such as net weight of the package contents. Consumers also need to make periodic checks on products made by the same manufacturer.

Some manufacturers are using a package of the same size and they used in the past but are reducing the contents of the package. Often the package continues to carry the same price tag although it contains less product than before. Known as quantity competition, this is just one means of competition being used among manufacturers that calls for watchfulness on the part of the consumer.

CALORIE NEEDS CHANGE
Older persons need fewer calories, but as much protein, minerals and vitamins as younger adults.

Health authorities agree that at age 45 or 65, a person should weigh the same as he did at age 25. However, as a person gets older, he usually is less active physically and tends to move more slowly than he did in his early twenties. Also he needs fewer calories to maintain his body processes.

To meet his needs of protein, vitamins and minerals, a middle-aged adult usually must choose calories by the company they keep. Informed adults choose low-calorie foods in amounts recommended from each of the four food groups — milk; meat, poultry and fish; fruits and vegetables; and bread and cereals. Wise adults also learn to eliminate or cut down

ROY E. COLDSMITH,

2 CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR SWAP CHARGES

By NORM LA COE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Democrat Richardson Dilworth says Republican William W. Scranton lacks the qualities to be governor while Scranton charges his opponent with taking up desperate issues in an effort to win in November.

The two gubernatorial candidates made their remarks in a joint appearance Wednesday night before 500 members of the Golden Slipper Square Club.

Earlier, they addressed the Philadelphia Board of Realtors at a luncheon meeting.

1ST SINCE DEBATE

The joint appearances were not in the form of a debate, but they marked the first time the candidates appeared on the same platform since their precedent setting debate here last month.

Dilworth told the Golden Slipper Club that Scranton lacks experience, integrity, is indecisive, uses political fakery and lacks qualities of leadership.

"He can't learn on the job as my opponent apparently intends to do," said Dilworth, who resigned as mayor of Philadelphia last February to run for governor.

ANCESTOR ISSUE

Scranton accused Dilworth of making a big campaign issue of the work of his (Scranton's) great-grandfather. He said Dilworth pictures his great-grandfather as a coal baron who reduced the people of Lackawanna County to serfdom.

The fact is, said the Republican candidate, his family got out of the coal business by 1880, long before a large-scale coal industry developed.

"The fact is," said Scranton, "that this, my opponent's big issue—trying to prove that my great-grandfather was a coal baron—is a clear indication of the desperate straits in which he finds his campaign."

Kennedy Has Cold; Cancels Schedule

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy is suffering from a head cold and canceled his scheduled for Thursday, A White House spokesman announced at mid-morning.

Press secretary Pierre Salinger described Kennedy's ailment as a minor upper respiratory infection.

Adm. George W. Buckley, assistant White House physician, examined the President Thursday morning and recommended that he stay in his living quarters at the executive mansion.

The White House said Kennedy's temperature and pulse were normal.

Dilworth said that for 100 years what he called rural and old line industrial Republicans have maintained a policy of inaction in state politics. He said the policy "has been obsolete for 40 years" but our old line Republican leadership clung grimly to the past.

"That same leadership refused to move forward in the field of education, of transportation, of mental health or of open space, or recreation and conservation," said Dilworth.

He said a tremendous job faces the next governor to overcome what he termed entrenched resistance.

Scranton outlined a 10-point program and said that Pennsylvania has everything it needs to be great except "a good, clean, honest, efficient government in Harrisburg."

In his ten-point program Scranton listed aggressive effort to get a fair share of federal aid, full state support for Philadelphia city-county consolidation, support for high-speed mass transportation, an accelerated state highway program, state encouragement of middle-income housing construction, better education programs, unceasing efforts to improve the state industrial climate, and particular efforts to preserve human values in communities and neighborhoods.

Scranton said he would create a new state department of community development to help preserve the human values.

FORD THEATER VISITED BY IKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—A gentleman farmer from Gettysburg, Pa., who spent several years in Washington finally got around to visiting Ford's Theater where President Lincoln was shot.

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower said after his visit Wednesday that he had been meaning to go to the theater for some time. Like any other tourist he browsed and made comments as he went along.

He put on his eyeglasses to get a close look at displays of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address and Emancipation Proclamation, campaign posters and battle scenes of the Civil War.

Another item which caught Eisenhower's attention was the six-inch, single shot muzzle-loading derringer, fired by a brass percussion cap—the weapon actor John Wilkes Booth used to kill Lincoln as he sat in the presidential box.

Eisenhower stood before a model of the theater listening to a taped recital of the events of Lincoln's assassination. He walked on before the narration was completed and commented to his escorts: "Sic semper tyrannis (Thus always to tyrants). Wasn't that what he (Booth) said?" The former president had recalled the words correctly.

ASKS COURT TO SETTLE STRIKE

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy has ordered the government to take court action to stop the strike of longshoremen that has tied up shipping in Atlantic and Gulf Coast ports.

Kennedy acted after receiving a report from the three-man board he appointed Monday to investigate the walkout. Naming of such a board is the first step under the Taft-Hartley law to halt major industrial work stoppages.

Kennedy's action cleared the way for the government to seek an end to the strike for an 80-day cooling off period.

Twice before Kennedy has invoked the Taft-Hartley law to end shipping strikes on the East and

HEARS OF PLOT TO KILL HIM

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—A Philadelphia toy dealer stood in court Wednesday as a former partner and another man pleaded guilty to charges they plotted to kill him.

Common Pleas Judge John V. Diggins of Delaware County, on the recommendation of the district attorney, sentenced Lawrence T. Murphy, 34, of Norwood, to two to 23 months in jail.

George A. Althouse, 48, Philadelphia, former partner of Philip Haimowitz, was ordered committed to Norristown State Hospital for psychiatric examination prior to sentencing.

Haimowitz was a sked if he objected to the sentencing. "If they go scot free, I could not live with myself or my family," Haimowitz replied.

The two men were arrested last Aug. 6. Dist. Atty. Jacques H. Fox said then that Althouse promised Murphy "five bills"—allegedly $5,000—if he could find someone to murder his partner. Murphy tried to get Sidney Queen, 32, a Norwood highway worker, to help him. Queen notified authorities, Fox said.

State Is Given Defense Contracts

HARRISBURG (AP)—Defense contract spending in Pennsylvania increased 42 per cent in the first year of the Kennedy administration, according to Gov. Lawrence's executive secretary.

Walter Giesey added Wednesday that figures from Washington show that $952 million worth of defense contracts were awarded here in fiscal 1961-62, compared with $671 million in the last year of the Eisenhower administration.

Pennsylvania's share of defense contracts compared with the rest of the nation rose from 3.1 to 3.8 per cent since Kennedy took office, Giesey said.

COOPERATIVES HOLD MEETING

The Pennsylvania Association of Farmer Cooperatives held its annual meeting Monday in the Holiday Inn at State College.

The following organizations in this community sent delegates: The Wool Growers Association, Interstate Milk Producers Co-op, Farm Bureau Co-op, Cooperative Fruitgrowers of Adams County, Southeastern Artificial Breeders Co-op, Adams Electric Cooperative, Inc., Federal Land Bank Association, Production Credit and Eastern States Farmers Exchange.

The meeting was called to order by $5,000—if he could find someone to murder his partner.

Ford Motor Company warrants to its dealers, and its dealers in turn warrant to owners, as follows: that for 24 months or for 24,000 miles, whichever comes first, free replacement, including related labor, will be made by dealers of any part with a defect in workmanship or materials. Tires are not covered by the warranty; appropriate adjustments will be made by tire companies. Owners will remain responsible for normal maintenance services, routine replacement of parts, such as filters, spark plugs, ignition points, wiper blades and brake or clutch linings, and normal deterioration of soft trim and appearance items. The benefits of the warranty are available to the original purchaser and to subsequent owners of the vehicle during the time and mileage limits prescribed in the warranty.

Here is what it means to you

The new 1963 Ford-built cars and trucks are quality-engineered and manufactured to serve you better and last longer than ever before. The proof is in the warranty... proof of quality unheard of a few years ago.

In fact, it was only two years ago that Ford Motor Company announced the 12-month, 12,000-mile passenger car warranty which became the industry standard as other manufacturers followed Ford's lead. At the same time, Lincoln Continental became the only American-built car warranted for two full years or 24,000 miles, whichever came first. Now, this warranty applies to all Ford-built cars, regardless of price. Why is this possible?

Actually, the new warranty is a natural outgrowth of the engineering leadership that has resulted in twice-a-year (or every 6,000-mile) passenger car maintenance. It goes hand-in-glove with such Ford-pioneered service savers as the elimination of the 1,000-mile inspection... 30,000- to 36,000-mile intervals between major lubrications, 6,000-mile intervals between oil changes and minor lubrications, self-adjusting brakes, aluminum mufflers, and longer-life electrical systems.

These features that save you time and money as you drive are a direct reflection of the total quality achievements of Ford Motor Company.

STEELERS ARE FAVORED TO BEAT EAGLES

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The balls and strikes of the World Series will in no way detract from the punts and passes as the professional football teams engage in another hectic weekend.

And if the coaches or fans aren't always surprised at the antics of the National and American Football League clubs, the fearless prognosticators are — particularly if they happen to be right.

It's been that kind of a year so far. Here's a go at this week's schedule last week NFL 5 right, 2 wrong; AFL 1-2; season: 16-14-1.

NFL Pittsburgh over Philadelphia—This one Saturday night will be a dilly, but Steelers strength and good running game and savvy of quarterback Bobby Layne too much for Philly.

Green Bay over Detroit—Packers' defense is match for big Lions and ground offense is stronger with Jim Taylor and Co.

PICK REDSKINS

New York over St. Louis—Giants' defense has been penetrated at times this season, but never when it counted most, and Cards have been unable to come up with big plays.

Washington over Los Angeles—When was the last time anyone picked the Skins to win? But they have momentum, improved defense and Bobby Mitchell.

Cleveland over Dallas—Browns won't be caught napping twice running, not with Jimmy Brown and Tom Wilson set for ground game.

Baltimore over San Francisco—Quarterback Johnny Unitas has come running help from Mark Smolinski. Alex Hawkins and the oft-finished Joe Perry to go with his passing.

Minnesota over Chicago—This is

AFL Denver over Oakland—Tonight, Denver fans will whoop again when their darlings make it 4-1 in the American League's western division.

Houston over Buffalo — Oilers had a week off in which to regroup. It should help old pro George Blanda.

Dallas over San Diego—no reason for the Texans' bubble to burst, for Chargers big line not the same without injured Earl Faison. Abner Haynes and quarterback Len Dawson to show way for Texans

2 PEACE CORPS NURSES ARE IN LEPROSARIUM

By TONY ESCODA
SUNGEI BULOH, Malaya (AP) — A 12-year-old Malayan girl, who cannot hear or talk, raptly watches an American square dance.
A boy with warped hands gleefully makes a catch in a game of softball.
Both are lepers, among 2,500 patients being helped by two Peace Corps volunteers at a Malayan government sanitarium.
Nurses Sadie Stout and Mary Lanziti say it didn't take them long to make up their minds to accept a chance to work at this leprosarium, although neither had worked before with the disease feared since biblical times.

DISEASE DISAPPEARING

Leprosy, which attacks nerves, kills tissue and leaves many of its victims deformed, has largely disappeared from the United States but still flourishes in tropical countries. Its cause is still a mystery.

Miss Lanziti, 39, who comes from Napa, Calif., says, "They left the decision up to us, and we're glad we're here."

Miss Stout, 35, from Arkansas City, Kan., adds: "I always wanted to work in a leprosarium, but I don't know why."

They arrived last January at Sungei Buloh, a neat cluster of pastel-shaded buildings and cottages set amid the palm-rich Malayan countryside, 15 miles south of Kuala Lumpur, the capital.

DIFFICULT ROUTINE

Their daily routine—which they share with a Malayan staff including only four other nurses—takes them along miles of hospital corridors and narrow asphalt roads. They check wards and visit the sprawling colony's clinics where hundreds come daily for fresh dressings.

They also work in surgery, assisting at operations sometimes necessary to save a patient in the advanced stages of leprosy.

A third Peace Corps volunteer, Natalia Smillie, a 65-year-old widow from Washington, D.C., joined the two in June as a researcher at Sungei Buloh's laboratory.

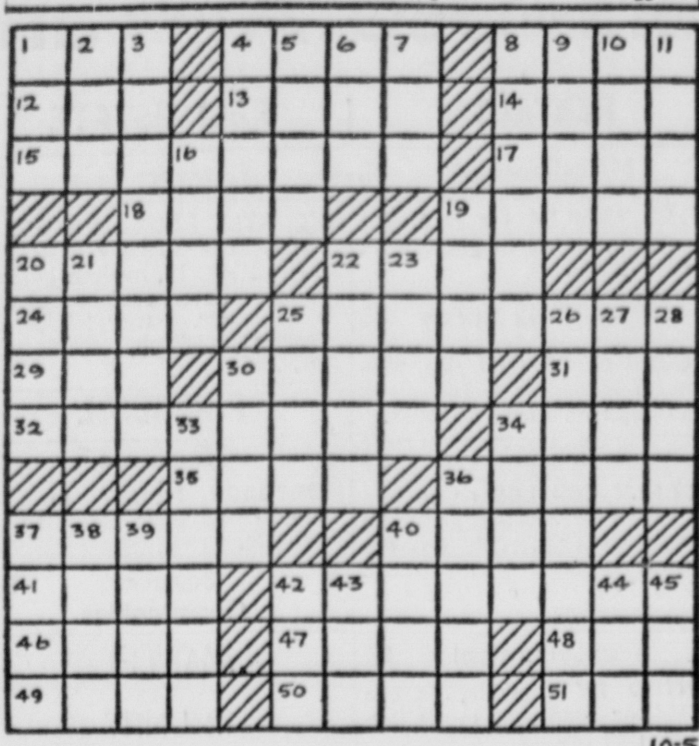

A cheery "hello" to all patients is standard from "Missy Sadie" and "Missy Mary" as they make their rounds in crisp white uniforms.

250 YOUNGSTERS

Their favorites are the 250 youngsters, who may spend several years away from home to protect their families. The disease can be transmitted through long personal contact.

The American nurses spend much of their spare time with the children, as Girl Guide (Scout) go.

STEELERS TO MEET EAGLES

PITTSBURGH (AP)—You can hardly blame Pittsburgh coach Buddy Parker if he tries to sneak a couple of anti-missile missiles into his defensive backfield when the Steelers entertain the Philadelphia Eagles at Forbes Field Saturday night.

For the Steelers, with one of the two pass defenses in the National Football League, run smack into the league's best air attack. Pittsburgh has yielded 1,173 yards through the air—six yards less than Washington—while opponents have completed a whopping 64 per cent of their passes for nine touchdowns. Those statistics were compiled against the Steel-
